SOME CURL FOOTPRINTS IN THE SANDS OF TIME

CURL

Genealogical Record

Dedicated to

My Paternal Grandparents

Jacob Painter and Dorcus (Hudson) Curl

By

Howard E. Curl

The material used in this book has been assembled from the notes and genealogical records of the late Howard E. Curl, M. D., birthright member of the Quaker Church and great, great grandson of Joseph Curle. This work represents six years of active genealogical research, and its purpose can best be expressed by a quotation from one of his letters:

"Before my time runs out I hope to have this material collected, organized, published and bound in permanent form so that the oncoming generations can easily follow their

"CURL FOOTPRINTS IN THE SANDS OF TIME."

On February 7, 1963, Dr. Curl died before he had been able to accomplish this hope. His friend, LaRaine Orwan, using his collection of statistics, court records, family records, letters and notes, has organized the Joseph Curle Genealogy into its present form, primarily the record of Joseph Curle's son Elias. Now we are ready to put this much into the hands of those who are interested. 1342178

Proof of Joseph Curle's ancestry has not been established. For those who have the interest and time to continue the search, there is additional but unproven material in the Howard Curl files. He found this tracing of one's ancestry a very exciting and rewarding hobby.

For help in collecting and organizing this work, Howard Curl would wish to thank LaRaine Orwan, the many Curl descendants and friends who cooperated, and, of course, William Wade Hinshaw and the FRIENDS who kept records of their members "in unity."

The following poem was composed by a Genealogical Pen Pal who is also searching for the parents of JOSEPH.

A N C E S T O R S

Since I am one part Quaker, I shall never Escape old inhibitions from the dust,
Shrug off responsibility or sever
My choice from that implacable, "Thee must!"

My gay French forebears broke their word at pleasure;
My Irish sires were smugglers, I've been told;
My Scots burned border towns for sport or treasure;
My English sold their souls for Spanish gold.

My Viking fathers wore their honor lightly;
My Welshmen's eyes and hair - and sins - were black;
My Normans were called devils, and that rightly;
But that one Quaker always holds me back.

SOME CURL FOOTPRINTS IN THE SANDS OF TIME

"The Society of Friends (Quaker) had its beginning in the middle of the seventeenth century in England. It was in this period of religious and political turmoil and uncertainty that George Fox and others discovered 'THUTH' as they saw it. Quakerism was but one of the new sects that grew out of those unsettled times. This Society was one that thrived on adversity and left its imprint on subsequent generations. Civil rights and religious liberty which we now enjoy can in a small way be attributed to its firm belief in human equality. The trials, sufferings, and persecutions of these early Friends, that these rights might be established, are beyond belief." [1]

In tracing our Curl family footprints across two hundred years of United States history and almost a century of colonial history, we now have proof that our ancestor, Joseph Curle, was a member of the Society of Friends Church, and the progenitor of an unbroken and very productive family line beginning in the early colonial days in North America and continuing decade after decade with the march of the population and contributing to the building of an empire.

JOSEPH CURLE[2]

Joseph Curle (Curl) was born circa 1752 and was residing in Chester County Pennsylvania just prior to the Revolutionary War. He was a member of the New Garden Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends (Quaker) Church. On June 3, 1775, Joseph Curle married Rebecca (Rebekah), and on the same date he was dismissed by the Elders from the New Garden Monthly Meeting of the Quaker Church for marrying "out of unity." Rebeccah was not a member of the Quaker Church.

On August 5, 1786, Joseph Curle, his wife Rebeccah and six children were received by request as members of the Hopewell Monthly Meeting in the Society of Friends in Frederick County, Virginia. Subsequently, Joseph Curle and his family membership passed through the Fairfax Monthly Meeting and on March 26, 1791, to the South River Monthly Meeting in Campbell County, Virginia.

Rebeccah Curle, wife of Joseph, died July 19, 1793, at the age of forty, and was buried in Campbell County, Virginia. There were eight children born to this union: (1) Hannah; (2) Amy; (3) Charles; (4) Rebekah; (5) Elizabeth; (6) Susannah; (7) Samuel; (8) Sarah.

After the death of his wife Rebeccah, Joseph Curle married Sarah Stratton, October 20, 1794, daughter of Joseph and Naomi (Quinn) Stratton. According to the marriage bond, Sarah's father, Joseph Stratton, wrote a note to the Clerk of Campbell County, Virginia, with the request,

"Grant to Joseph Curle license to marry my daughter, Sarah."

This marriage bond was signed by Joseph Stratton and George Fox, and was witnessed by Solomon Tharp and Joseph Fox.

In 1801 Joseph Curle, wife Sarah, and his children moved to Columbiana County, Ohio; as there was no organized governing body of the Society of Friends in Columbiana County, Ohio, at that time, their membership was transferred by way of the Westlind Monthly Meeting in Pennsylvania. Joseph and his family settled near Salem, Ohio. It is not clear from the available records the length of time they remained near Salem. The minutes of the meeting of the Salem, Ohio, church mentions the Joseph Curle family as late as 1809, while another item notes that his membership was transferred in 1806 to Goshen (Darby Creek) Monthly Meeting of the Quaker Church in Zane Township, Logan County, Ohio. Joseph had visited this locality before and had been impressed by the large number of "salt licks," where deer and other wild animals gathered to lick salt. Joseph bought land in this vicinity and planned to extract the salt commercially. Although this plan proved impractical, the land was agriculturally profitable.

Joseph Curle and family remained in Logan County until 1820, at which time he sold the farm to one of his sons and moved to Greene County, Ohio, where they remained until Joseph's death August 29, 1836. Sarah, wife of Joseph, died 1862. Both Joseph and Sarah (Stratton) Curle are buried in the New Hope Cemetery in Greene County, Ohio. There were seven children born to Joseph and Sarah Stratton Curle: (1) Naomi; (2) Joseph Stratton; (3) Elias; (4) James; (5) John; (6) Joel; (7) Benjamine.

WILL OF JOSEPH CURLE

I bequeath to my wife Sarah my place or plantation with all furniture, one good horse, 2 cows & as many sheep & hogs as she may think proper out of my stock, during her life or widowhood in lieu of her Dower but if she may marry again I give her one good bed & bedding, one set of pewter plates that she now claims to be her own property, one cow & all the Tea ware, side saddle & bridle; but at expiration of her widowhood that all my personal property may be sold that may not be claimed by my wife.

I do order that Charles, Samuel, Joseph, Elias, James, John, Jacob and Benjamin each to one dollar out of proceeds of my personal property if there be any balance it is to be equally divided amongst my daughters then living as far as $20.00 each if there be so much - if there should be still an overplus it is to be equally divided amongst all my children then living.

I order my books divided equally among children then living.

I appoint my sons Joseph & James Curl & Jacob Painter my true executors.

Joseph Curl.

No date when Will was made. It was presented in open Court Nov. 8, 1836, & recorded Feb. 9, 1837.

* Information on David Caleb Curl family from family records of Velma Van Doren, Helen Virden and Ethel Smith.

Our first intention was to record only the substantiated facts of the Joseph Curle Line through his son Elias, beginning with our first known fact and date, Joseph's and Rebecca's marriage in 1775 with Joseph's birth around 1750. However, in response to many requests, we are adding some of the legends and records of Curles previous and contemporary to Joseph, with suggestions of his ancestry.

Excerpt from the MEDIA RESEARCH BUREAU, Washington, D. C.

The name of CURL, CURLE, CURLES, CURRELL was derived from the residence of its first bearers at Crowle, a parish in the County of Lincoln, England. It is found in ancient English and early American records in various forms, but the above spellings are those most generally used in America. The first definite record of the name in America is that of JOANE CURLE, who came to Virginia from England in 1652. However, a Samuel Curly and wife Alice were in James City County, Virginia, in the year 1636.

Four brothers, THOMAS, PASCO, SAMUEL, and JOSHUA CURL, CURLE OR CURLES came from County Sussex, England, and settled in Elizabeth City, Virginia, in the latter seventeenth century. Of these brothers, Thomas is known to have been born in the parish of St. Michael in Lewes, County Sussex, England, in 1640, and to have used the coat of arms; he died without children in 1700 leaving his estate to his brother Pasco. Pasco had at least seven children including: Sarah, Mary, Judith, Nicholas, Pasco (who died young, Joshua, and John. Of Pasco's children: Sarah was married in 1702 to her first cousin JOSHUA CURLE, son of her uncle Samuel; Mary married a Captain Henry Jenkins and (second) an Anthony Tucker; Judith married John Bailey; NICHOLAS had children WILSON, PASCO (no further record), Jane and Mary; JOSHUA had a son NICHOLAS; JOHN appears to have died in 1728 without children.

References to the Virginia families of the name of CURLE are found in the records of the Revolutionary Service of the brothers Jacob, Richard and John Curle of Lynchburg, Virginia.

ARCHIBALD CURLE and his wife Jane were living in Montgomery Co. West Va. in 1799. It is highly probable that they were closely related to the Va. family.

One JOHN CURRILL or CURL came from England to America before 1719 and settled at Boston, Massachusetts, his intention to marry a Mary Wye being published in that year. No further record has been found of his marriage or of a family.

One line of Curls is descended from the WILLIAM CURLES, both born in Virginia, he in Sept. 1754, died Jan. 20, 1841, in Logan Co. Ohio; wife Sarah Ball Brown, born Feb. 20, 1758, died August 28, 1826, in Logan Co. Ohio. Their children were: Mary, Jeremiah, Rachel, Elizabeth, Thomas, Nancy, Sarah, William Jr., Charity, Isaac and John. These descendants have accomplished much in following their family record, but they are still searching for the first William's ancestor.

There is a genealogical record of George Curl, born June 24, 1779, son of a William Curle who by family tradition came from Sussex County, England. This family also migrated to Ohio in the early 1800's. Children of GEORGE CURLE and wife Margery (Picket): Sarah, Mary, Nancy, Ruth, Jeremiah, William, Asenath, and Mahlon.

Excerpt from a letter to Mrs. Dale Thompson from William Wade Hinshaw, author of ENCYCLOPEDIA OF AMERICAN QUAKER GENEALOGY

There were CURL Families in so many meetings that you will simply have to have them searched until you find the right one. There were CURLS who belonged to the Westland MM, Washington Co., Pa., and who removed there from Frederick Co. Va., where they belonged to Hopewell MM. CURLS were also in Campbell Co. and Bedford Co. Va., and belonged to South River MM and Goose Creek in Bedford Co. Va., in Fairfax MM, Loudoun Co. Va. There were CURLS in Clinton, Ohio, members of Center MM, who went there in 1802 from South River MM. Campbell Co. Va. (Note - the Joseph Curle Family was listed in these.)

It seems evident that some of these Virginia Curls came from Pennsylvania and/or New Jersey, and other Curls were those that were in Southern Virginia at an earlier date. The meetings of Hopewell, Fairfax and Goose Creek (Loudoun Co.) were established after 1730; whereas the Curle's Meeting in Henrico Co. Va. was established in 1699. There were several men named Curl who are listed in "Brumbaugh's Revolutionary Soldiers of Virginia." The Curls of North Carolina probably went there from Southern Virginia Meetings.

Miami MM. Warren Co. Ohio (located on Little Miami River) was established in 1803. During its first 5 years it grew to have as many as 2200 members who came there from South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland, which shows a wide range of immigrants to that part of Ohio in early days of the Northwest Territory. The minutes of Miami show that a CURL family, JOSEPH and wife SARAH, came to Miami in 1810 from Salem MM. Ohio. Miami MM soon became so large that it was divided into other meetings and the members transferred to the nearest one but without further certificates.

Excerpt from Beers' HISTORY OF WARREN COUNTY OHIO, page 914

Thomas Miller married Eliza Curl, dau. of Samuel Curl and Susannah Painter. The paternal grandparents were Joseph and Rebecca Curl, he a native Wales, she of France. The grandfather Joseph Curl, living in Brandywine during Revolution, being a miller by trade, was put in a mill and kept there to supply the army and was eye-witness to many terrible things connected with the war. About 1802 they emigrated to Ohio and located in Columbiana Co. where they resided 'til 1809, thence to Logan Co. where they lived 'til 1829, thence to Greene Co.

(Note: Word "native" was sometimes used to indicate place of family origin.)

In correspondence from Curl families we find: "The first Joseph Curl came over in 1739 from Wales, settled at Valley Forge, and had a son Joseph." We have no proof of this statement and present it here as legendary.

Excerpts from SIMON HADLEY FAMILY HISTORY and from Minutes of New Garden MM's

In October 1682, William Penn and his party of Friends (Quaker) from Deal, England, landed at New Castle, Delaware, and at Uplands (now Chester) Pennsylvania. By November of that year, their organization having been completed, the Quakers held their first Monthly Meeting in what is now Philadelphia. By 1700 there were many Quaker meeting houses in this area now forming southeast Pennsylvania, northeast Maryland and northern limits of Delaware.

In 1712, from Moat County, Ireland, Simon Hadley and family transferred their Quaker membership to Penn's Colony, Simon having purchased more than 1000 acres of land lying between what is now Philadelphia and Wilmington, the land so situated that when the boundary line between Pennsylvania and Delaware was established, it passed through the Hadley Estate. The home and headquarters buildings were left on the Delaware side in Mill Creek Hundred. In the Simon Hadley Family were: Joseph, Deborah, Joshua, Simon Jr., Hannah, Ruth, Catherine and Anna.

Also living in Mill Creek Hundred, Delaware, at this time were the CURLES, also Quakers. This family consisted of RICHARD, his wife MARY, and children: SUSANNAH, JOHN, SAMUEL, SARAH ? and perhaps others.

In 1737 SUSANNAH CURLE married John Gregg in Quaker Meeting House.

Between 1737 and 1746 RICHARD CURLE died.

In 1745 NICHOLAS CURLE married contrary to discipline. In 1749 he received a certificate to the Bethlehem MM. in Jerseys. Nicholas is not identified.

In 1746, JOHN CURLE, living in Chester Co. Pennsylvania, was granted permission by the Monthly Meeting at Kennett to wed Deborah Hadley in Christiana Hundred in New Castle Co. Delaware. Their known children were Benjamine (b. 3-12-1749, d. 9-1766); Mary (b. 1-24-1759); John (b. 5-3-1761).

In 1748, SAMUEL CURLE, living in Chester Co. Pennsylvania, was granted permission to marry Hannah Hadley. This marriage was in open meeting in the Friends Meeting House in Hockessin (a town still on the map) Delaware. Witnesses of this wedding are listed, many of the given names of these Greggs, Hadleys and Curles being the same as those given our Joseph Curle's children. Curles listed on the marriage record are: Mary (probably mother of groom), Sarah, Nicholas and John.

Samuel and Hannah Curle later belonged to the New Garden Monthly Meeting in Chester Co., when one reference is found of children born to them, a daughter Elizabeth, b. March 6, 1758.

In William Wade Hinshaw's Encyclopedia, no other Curls are mentioned in this area during this period except JAMES CURLE and our Joseph. JAMES CURLE in 1789 was granted transfer from Kennett Monthly Meeting, Chester Co. Pennsylvania to Hopewell MM. in Virginia to marry Ruth, dau. of Joseph and Rachel Randall. Names of their children also compare with those of witnesses of Samuel Curle's wedding 1748.

In 1786 Joseph and Rebecca went from Chester Co. Pennsylvania to Virginia, and in 1801 transferred from Virginia to Salem, Ohio, then in 1810 they transferred to the Miami MM. In 1813 James, wife Ruth, and children also transferred to Miami MM. from Goose Creek MM. Virginia. The lives of these two, JOSEPH and JAMES, seem to have paralleled so closely that there is indication of relationship - perhaps brothers - perhaps grandsons of RICHARD and MARY CURLE ?

A personal search of the Monthly Meeting Minutes and County Records in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and Ohio might be rewarding.

Of interest to the Joseph Curle descendants is this story from Vera Spivey:

"I have heard my Grandmother (Matilda Curl Bush, granddaughter of Joseph Curle) and my Mother tell this Benjamin Quinn story many times. Benjamin Quinn was born in Ireland. He was kidnapped when a small boy and brought to America and sold into bondage in Virginia, possibly during the period between 1730 and 1740. He grew to manhood, married, and one of his children, a daughter Naomi, married Joseph Stratton of Lynchburg, Virginia (possibly around 1775). Joseph Stratton had a brother David who also figures in some of the Curl history. Joseph and Naomi Stratton came to Ohio, settling in Zane Township, Logan County, in 1810 and were among the early white settlers in that community."

To this union we have a record of two children, Joseph Jr. and Sarah. SARAH STRATTON became the second wife of our JOSEPH CURLE.
